- The Westoz portfolio declined in value by 0.5% in October. The ASX All Ordinaries increased in value driven by the financial and technology sectors. Cyclical sectors weakened over the month as COVID case growth continued.
- Nickel Mines (NIC.ASX) was the most positive contributor following an announcement on production growth. Last month's winner Coronado Resources (CRN.ASX) declined on news of reduced Chinese demand for Australian coal.
- The cash balance remained relatively constant with some switching of positions amongst metal miners and continued purchases in the energy area.

About Westoz Investment Company

Westoz Investment Company Limited is a listed investment company established in 2005 with an objective to generate a positive return from an actively managed portfolio of small to mid cap ASX listed companies, and provide shareholders with a consistent stream of dividends.

Since inception, WIC has returned $179 million of dividends and franking credits to shareholders. The portfolio is managed by Westoz Funds Management Pty Ltd based in Perth, a 100% owned subsidiary of Euroz Limited.

Given the location of the Manager, it is anticipated that the majority of investment opportunities identified will have a connection to Western Australia.
